

QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

Our commitment

Rometals Management is committed to implementing a company policy regarding the quality of its services, its employees' health and safety and protection of the environment.

Values:

Safety is our core value no. 1.

Any compromises whatever it will be will be rejected by our supervisors at all times.

Any accident or injury is unacceptable and must be prevented.

Investigation of the causes must always result in taking suitable prevention measures.

Any incident or dangerous situation without injury has to be reported and needs to be investigated very closely.

Safety:

Workplace safety and health will be monitored by our organization from each level very seriously.

In all of our operations, we are guided by our goal of zero injuries.

Personal safety and employee health is Rometals greatest responsibility.

We expect all of our people, to take personal accountability for ensuring not only their own safety, but also the safety of our colleagues as well as others.

Our culture provides a workplace that promotes excellence in safety and care for the environment.

The business of production and installation of all kind of (high) tension steel structures can be dangerous, but one which can be done safely every day, everywhere.

Quality Management

Rometal ensures that its clients' needs are assessed and that every employee understands and is motivated to meet those needs.

Protecting the environment

Our activities not only need to comply with the needs and requirements of our clients but must also be implemented with respect for the environment.

Rometal is committed to the protection of the environment, including prevention of pollution and therefore restricts the production of waste and emissions to a minimum.

Rometal management constantly develops, implements and maintains management systems that aims to meet the various norms and standards (ISO 900, ISO 3834, EN-1090, VCA etc.).

The efficiency of these systems are constantly improved by means of regular external audits and management reviews so that the necessary remedial and prevention measures can be taken promptly to improve performance.

Cooperation and support of every employee and the management are essential for the continued successful implementation of this policy statement.
